NEWS RELEASE SUMMARY - April 11, 2005

United States Attorney Carol C. Lam announced the sentencing in United States District Court in San Diego today of Glen Alan Morgan for three counts of bank robbery occurring in San Diego, California, on December 31, 1999, in Miami, Florida on November 17, 1999, and in Las Vegas, Nevada, on September 26, 1999. Morgan pled guilty on January 10, 2005, to all counts of the Indictment and admitted to committing the three bank robberies while making express threats of death to each of the victim tellers. The Honorable M. James Lorenz, United States District Court Judge, imposed a sentence of 112 months in custody and three years of supervised release, and ordered Morgan to pay $4,300.00 in restitution to the affected financial institutions.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Richard C. Cheng, who prosecuted the case, Morgan was arrested in Arkansas on January 6, 2004, nearly four years after the three robberies took place. Surveillance photographs taken during the bank robberies and latent fingerprints left at each bank were matched by the Federal Bureau of Investigation to those of Morgan.

United States Attorney Lam said, "This lengthy sentence is more than justified by the terror the defendant imposed on the victim tellers in these three bank robberies."

The case was the product of an investigation conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation's San Diego Bank Robbery Squad.
